H N PALLEGAR, Esq , M A , LL B ,
Secretary to Government,
Revenue Department, Bangalore

Sir,

Sub Disposal of the right of collection of Toll of Gundlupet Town Municipality for 1947-48

I have the honour to forward herewith, a report No C 47/46-47 dated 1-5-1947 received from the President, Town Municipal Council Gundlupet on the above subject and to state as follows -

1) The right of collection of toll was being leased out annually in the past by public auction, the highest bid secured last year being Rs 427/- per month or Rs 5134/- per year, which was sanctioned by Government in their order No L 1042-3/ML 107-45-60 dated 23-7-1946

2) During the current year, the sale held for 1947-48 is stated to have resulted in securing a bid for only Rs 301/- per month or Rs 3612/- per year which is a loss to Municipality as compared with that of the last year's bid Tenders are stated to have been invited from contractors and it is said that there was no response for them

3) It is therefore stated that the council resolved at their meeting held on 30-4-1947 that the right of collection be worked amani by the council Copy of resolution is enclosed

4) This charge however involves entertainment establishment at a cost of Rs 1156/- as detailed below -

1	4 octroi peons on Rs 10/- D A 12/- per mensem (22x4x12)	1056/
2	Printing charges	100
	Total	1156

The majority of the councillors are reported to be confident of working it at a profit

5) In the foregoing circumstances, I request that the proposal of the council may be sanctioned together with the estimate asked for

I have the honour to be,
sir,
Your most obedient servant,
